In spring 2010 TaliBoelt Design launched their own kids couture collection named "Petite Emilia" and "Miss Emilia". Petite Emilia is for the little ones from 0 to 5 years and Miss Emilia is for the young ladies from 6 to 12 years.

The fashion artist Natalia Raphaela Boelt (born Amoo) grew up in Ghana / West Africa and South Baden/Germany. Today she works as a successful designer in her own bridal studio, where she creates and crafts under the brand TaliBoelt Design bridal and festive fashions, matching accessories and children's fashion.

Natalia Boelt from TaliBoelt Design

„The wedding day is for every woman very unique, and therefore also the wedding dress should be unique too“. [Natalia Boelt, TaliBoelt Design]

At every time Natalia starts to design a wedding or evening dress she starts with the clear vision and the clear target to create something unique for the women. Either in order of the customer, for her new collections or as a free work to test new design possibilities.

Natalia Boelt launched her signature label in 2006. Her vision : Designing the dress every woman and bride dreams from. She is self taught with basic studies in fashion design and tailoring. She started designing clothes on personal passion at the age of eleven to create utterly beautiful clothes that woman and little girls love to wear. Natalia has developed an international reputation for designing luxurious elegant bridal and evening wear, bridal jewellery and accessories, which makes the woman wearing them feel confident and perfectly dressed.

Natalia's signature is the attention to the detail, use of the ultimate in fabrics and perfection in cut. Her favorite materials are duchesse silks, taffeta, silk organza, silk chiffon, tulle and lace which are often hand embroidered by herself to make it really unicate.

Natalia is a woman full of passion with a free spirit who loves her work, loves seeing the sparkling eyes of the woman wearing her designs. She is always in search of new inspirations.
